Rite

- The hymn ⲫⲟⲩ ⲁⲓⲑⲟⲩⲥϥⲣⲁⲍⲓⲥⲑⲉⲛ is a Greek piece (troparion), that is, a hymn of victory and triumph. It was transmitted by Pope Kyrillos (Cyril) IV, the Father of Reform, Patriarch 110 (1854–1861 AD) of Alexandria, from the Greek Church, together with its Greek text, to the Coptic Church.
- It is chanted during the Resurrection procession, beginning on the eve of the Feast of the Resurrection and continuing until the 39th day of the Holy Fifty Days. After the first Greek piece, ⲫⲟⲛⲥⲩⲛⲁ, this second Greek piece is chanted, followed by the third Greek piece, ⲫⲓⲛ ⲁⲛⲁⲥⲧⲁⲥⲓⲛ.

Hymn Synopsis

This hymn speaks about the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, to whom belongs all glory. It proclaims that He rose on the third day while the stone remained placed over the tomb and sealed by the Jews. Through Christ's Resurrection, He granted life to the world and to everyone who believes in Him. Therefore, the hosts of heaven sang to Him:
"Glory to Your Resurrection, O Christ."
